

The Johns Hopkins University, School of Medicine
GYN/OB Clerkship:

Gynecology Objectives

1. Take and appropriately record a complete gynecologic history.
2. Perform and appropriately record the essentials of a breast, abdominal and pelvic examination (including speculum and bi-manual portions of the pelvic exam).
3. Obtain a Pap smear, perform cervical cultures and interpret KOH and wet smears of vaginal secretions.
4. Describe reasons why the possibility of pregnancy must be considered when any woman within the reproductive age range who presents for medical evaluation and care. Describe how pregnancy, both intrauterine and extrauterine, can present in many ways and must be considered in terms of differential diagnosis and treatment decisions.
5. Describe hormonal relationships of the menstrual cycle and how they relate to normal and abnormal uterine bleeding.
6. Describe differing gynecologic issues and problems encountered in the different stages of a woman's life.
7. Describe relations and identify the anatomy of the external genitalia and pelvic viscera of women.
8. Describe the common gynecologic neoplasms, including the presentation, diagnosis and treatment; understand the general principles of staging.
9. Construct appropriate differential diagnoses for patients presenting with (1) abnormal bleeding and/or (2) pelvic pain and/or (3) vaginal discharge and/or (4) menopausal symptoms and/or (5) acute abdomen.
10. Outline appropriate measures of prevention and/or early detection of cervical dysplasia and sexually transmitted diseases.
11. Outline the different contraceptive techniques with their advantages/disadvantages, risks and benefits.
12. Assess a patient for possible perimenopausal symptoms and be able to construct a differential diagnosis, evaluation and management plan for those women. In addition, the student should be able to counsel women regarding hormone replacement therapy.